PREFACE

From the Emerald Isle we derive
The blarney on which we thrive;
Smilin' Irish eyes
Our cares minimize:
'Tis only for this that we strive.

Where every leaving class
And every lad and lass
Will keep in mind
The truths they'll find,
Success will come to pass.

A bit of the old Donegal
Has been planted in us one and all;
It shows in this book,
You just take a look
At the spirit of old Donegal.

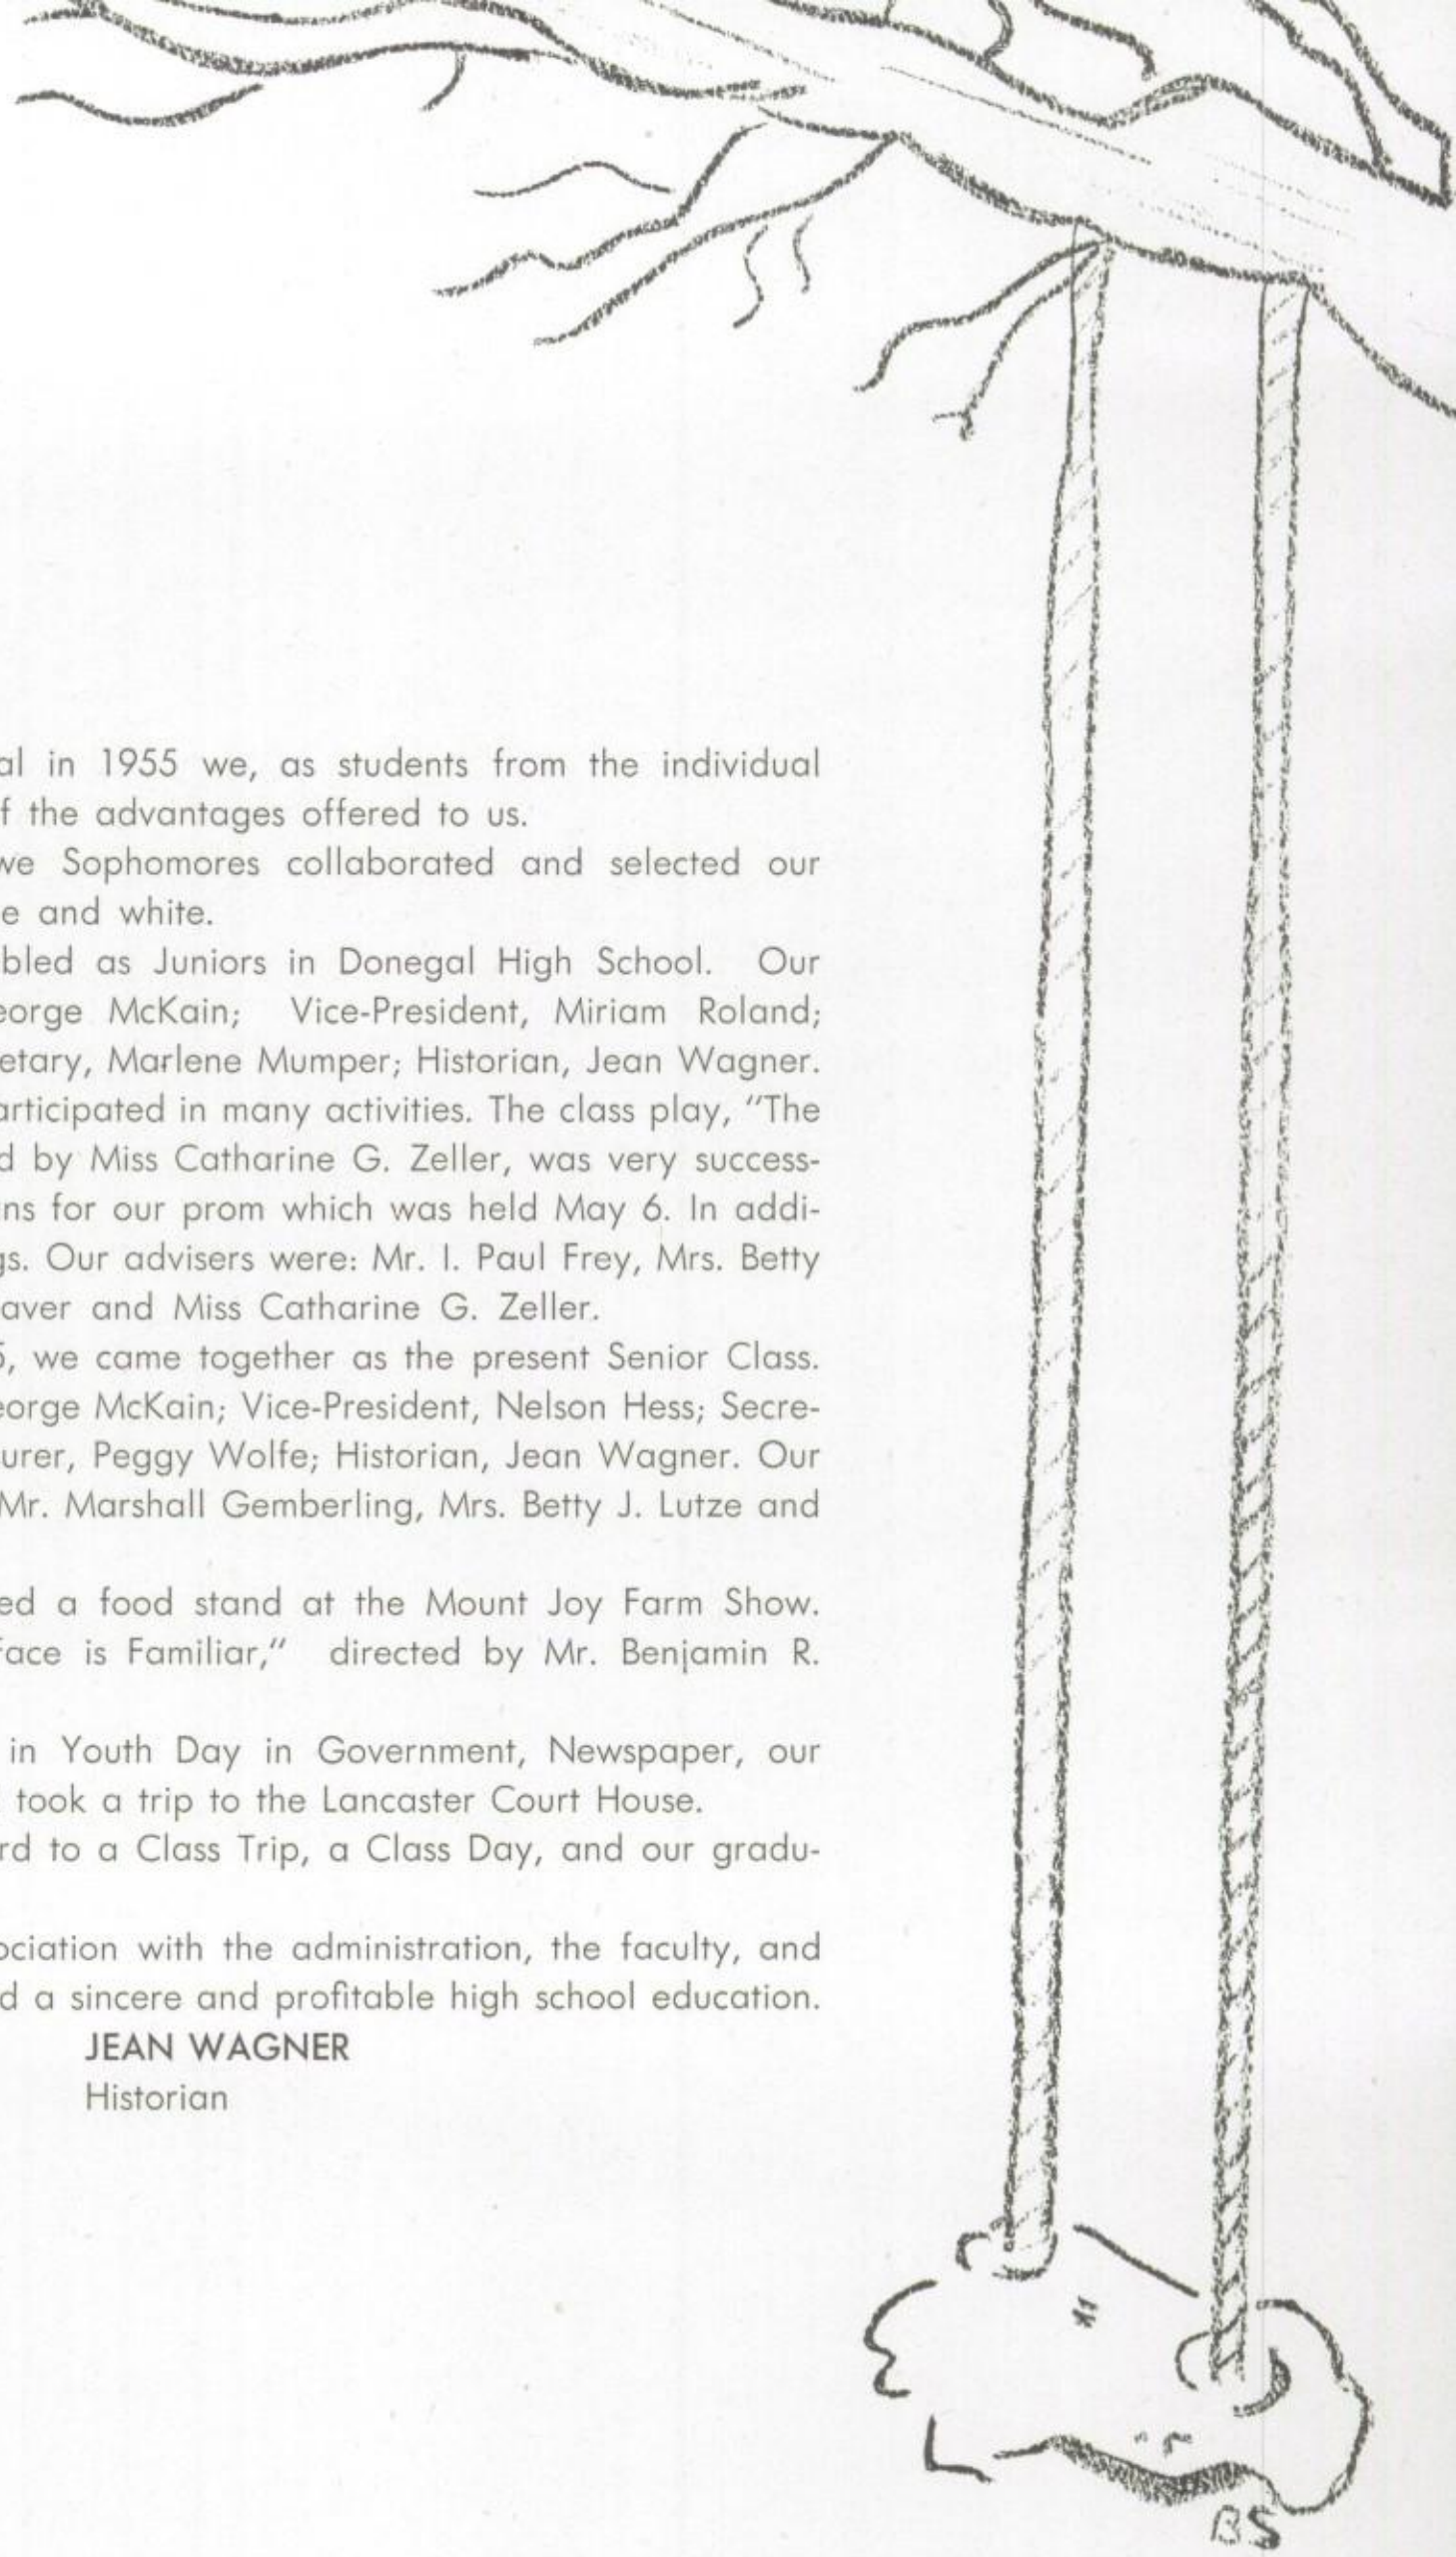
DEDICATION

The seniors of Donegal High
Dedicate this book with a sigh
To the area 'round,
Our community sound,
Whose help has ever been nigh.

To the township of East Donegal,
Which has always answered our call
For aid and support
Of each kind and sort
Through springtime and winter and fall.

To the township and borough, Mount Joy,
Which have contributed many a boy
To bolster our team
And cherish some dream
To bring out the real McCoy.

With Marietta, a town endowed
With an alert teenager crowd
Who come to school
To learn, not fool,
We end our verses so proud.



Upon entering Donegal in 1955 we, as students from the individual schools, became well-aware of the advantages offered to us.

As our first project we Sophomores collaborated and selected our jackets whose colors were blue and white.

In 1954-55, we assembled as Juniors in Donegal High School. Our officers were: President, George McKain; Vice-President, Miriam Roland; Treasurer, Charles Groff; Secretary, Marlene Mumper; Historian, Jean Wagner.

As Juniors, our class participated in many activities. The class play, "The Call of The Banshee," directed by Miss Catharine G. Zeller, was very successful. We also had to make plans for our prom which was held May 6. In addition we received our class rings. Our advisers were: Mr. I. Paul Frey, Mrs. Betty J. Lutze, Mr. Benjamin R. Weaver and Miss Catharine G. Zeller.

On September 7, 1955, we came together as the present Senior Class. Our officers are: President, George McKain; Vice-President, Nelson Hess; Secretary, Susan Fellenbaum; Treasurer, Peggy Wolfe; Historian, Jean Wagner. Our advisers are Mr. I. Paul Frey, Mr. Marshall Gemberling, Mrs. Betty J. Lutze and Miss Catharine G. Zeller.

In October we operated a food stand at the Mount Joy Farm Show. The class presented "Your Face is Familiar," directed by Mr. Benjamin R. Weaver.

We also participated in Youth Day in Government, Newspaper, our yearbook, THE EMERALD, and took a trip to the Lancaster Court House.

We are looking forward to a Class Trip, a Class Day, and our graduation exercises.

Through our close association with the administration, the faculty, and other students, we have gained a sincere and profitable high school education.

Historian

CLASS HISTORY

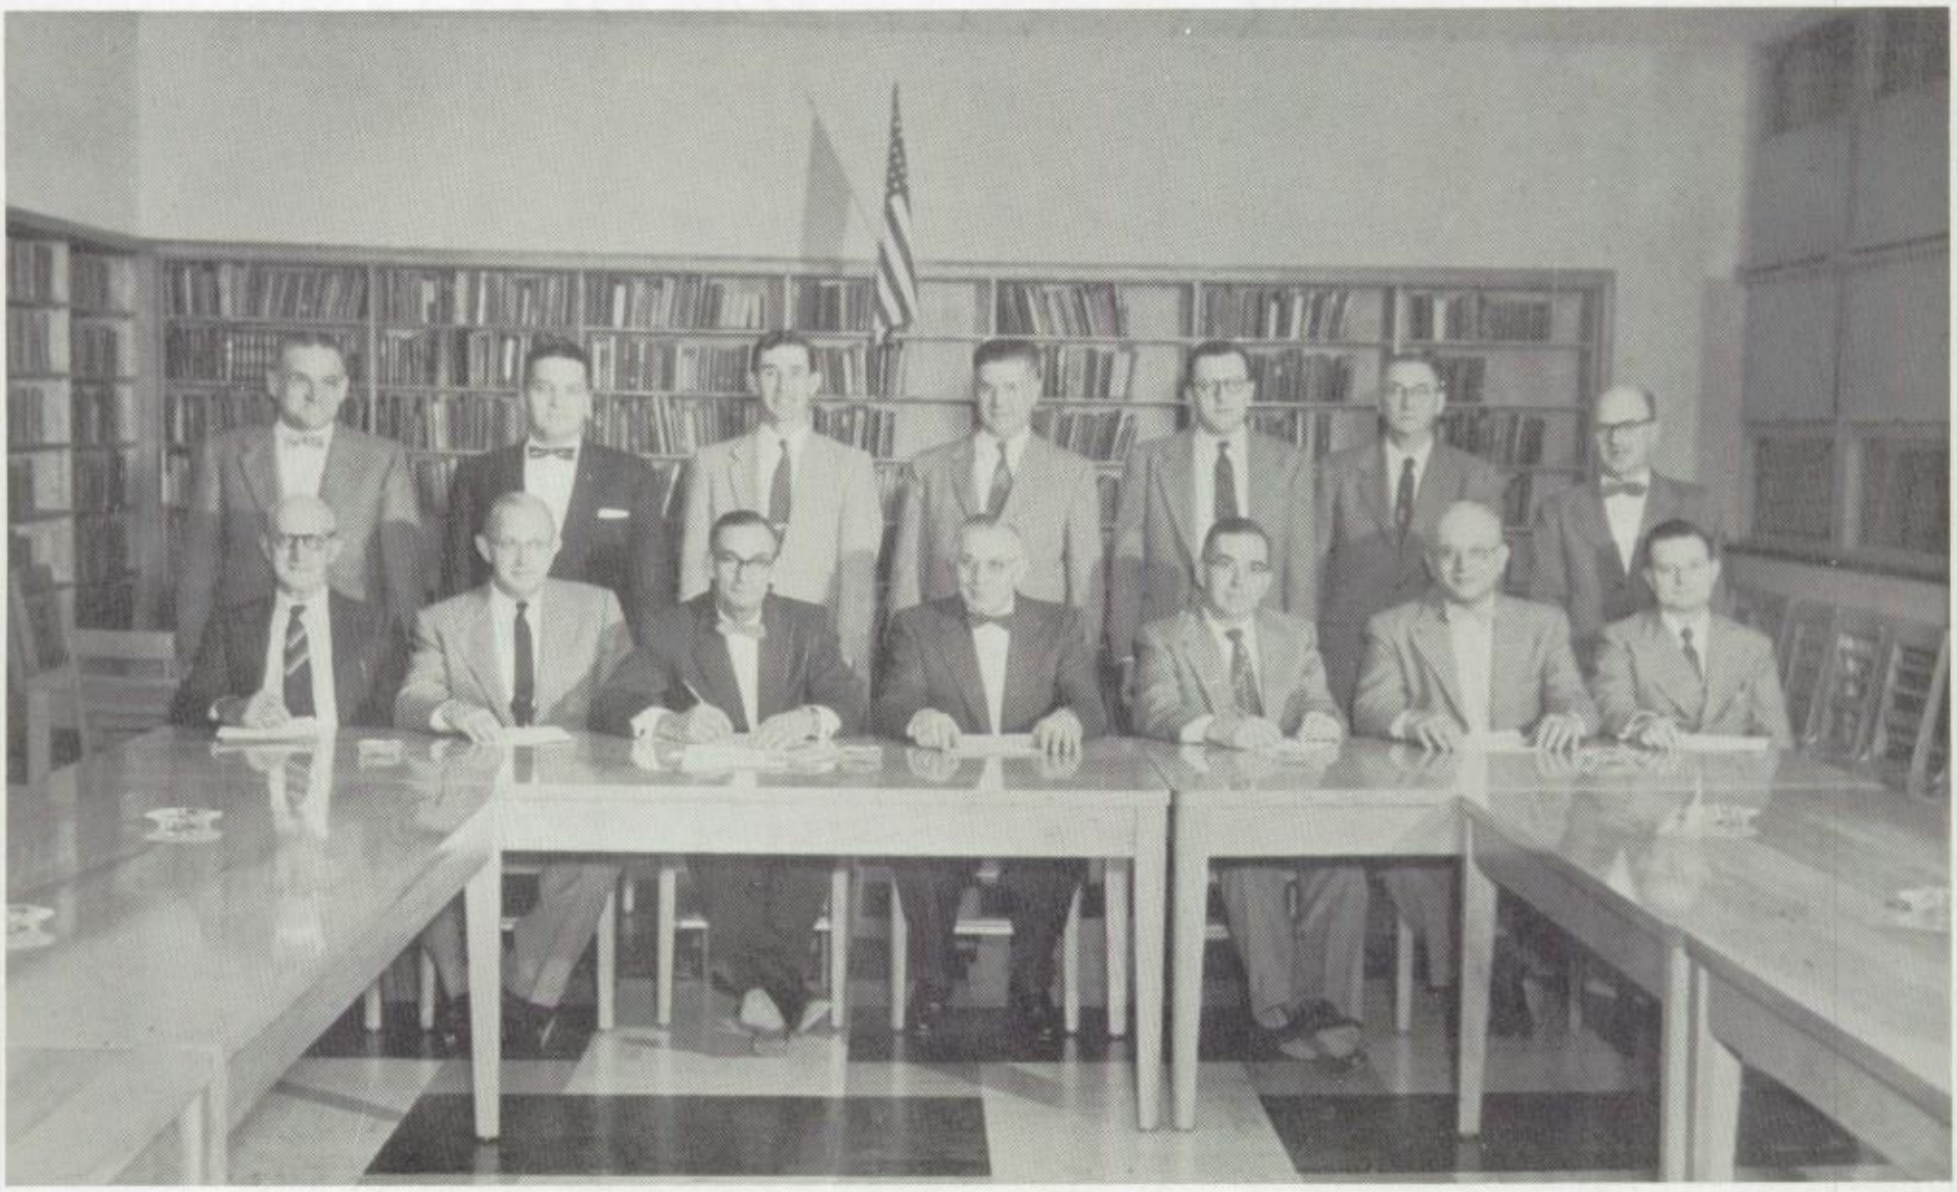
ADMINISTRATION

These teachers we like the best
Though they're always giving a test;
We do our books
With dirty looks.
Why don't they give us a rest?

They are tall, they're average, they're small.
Using both their grain and their jaw,
Some young, some old,
Some kind, some cold,
But really we like them all.

The faculty of Donegal
Are busy in room and in hall;
They seem so nice
Always giving advice
In matters both large and small.

DONEGAL JOINT SCHOOL BOARD



Standing, from left to right: Martin S. Musser, J. Edw. Charles, James M. Eshelman, Daniel M. Wolgemuth (Chairman of Joint School Authority), Jay C. Musser, Paul L. Stoner, Samuel T. Becker. Sitting, from left to right: Joseph E. Bixler, George E. Morris, JOHN D. ROLAND—Secretary, PAUL WEIEN—Vice-President, E. MUSSER HEISEY—President, Albert D. Seiler, Jacob H. There's a certain group called the school board
That decided what it could afford,
    So Donegal High
    Was our best buy;
And the communities are now in accord.

TO THE SENIORS

Now we have reached the end
Of twelve years of lengthy learning;
Oh, that we might return again—
This is our hopeless yearning—
To nostalgic days of yore
And be but children once more.

But is it true of us all?
Let others have their say;
Say they, "We'll suppress our gall";
The reply: "That wasn't our day;
We were forced to learn our books
By whips and dirty looks."

But to us graduation's the herald
Of exit from youthful employ,
Of entrance into adult world
And sharing all its care and joy;
So good-by to all that we knew,
We must paddle our own canoe.

UNDERCLASSMEN

The juniors presented their play,
And had their prom in May;
They like their rings,
And many things
Will make them happy seniors, they say.

The sophomores each got a jacket;
They make a lot of racket,
Can't type at all
But can play ball;
School spirit—they don't lack it.

Grades seven, eight, and nine
Are impatiently waiting in line
To get up there
And have their share
Of hearing commencement bells chime.

ACTIVITIES

The teachers, the books, the activities
Keep us busy as myriads of fleas;
  The clubs are nice,
  Fun bursts like rice,
And the students "buzz" like bees.

The "Hi-Lite" and "Emerald" aren't small;
In fact, they're the hardest of all,
  But worth the most time,
  Their purpose sublime
For those who respond to the call.

We all love to go to chorus,
Where our leader shouts and gets hoarse;
  The band plays loud
  And draws a crowd;
Of money and talent it's a source.

F.F.A., F.H.A. are "the most,"
About which the farmers all boast;
  Y-Teens, Hi-Y—
  To do service they try;
Rules for all, the Senate does post.

Sweet Sue is our Emerald Queen,
Whose dress was really keen;
The Princess Diane
Helped rule the land;
They were beautiful to be seen.

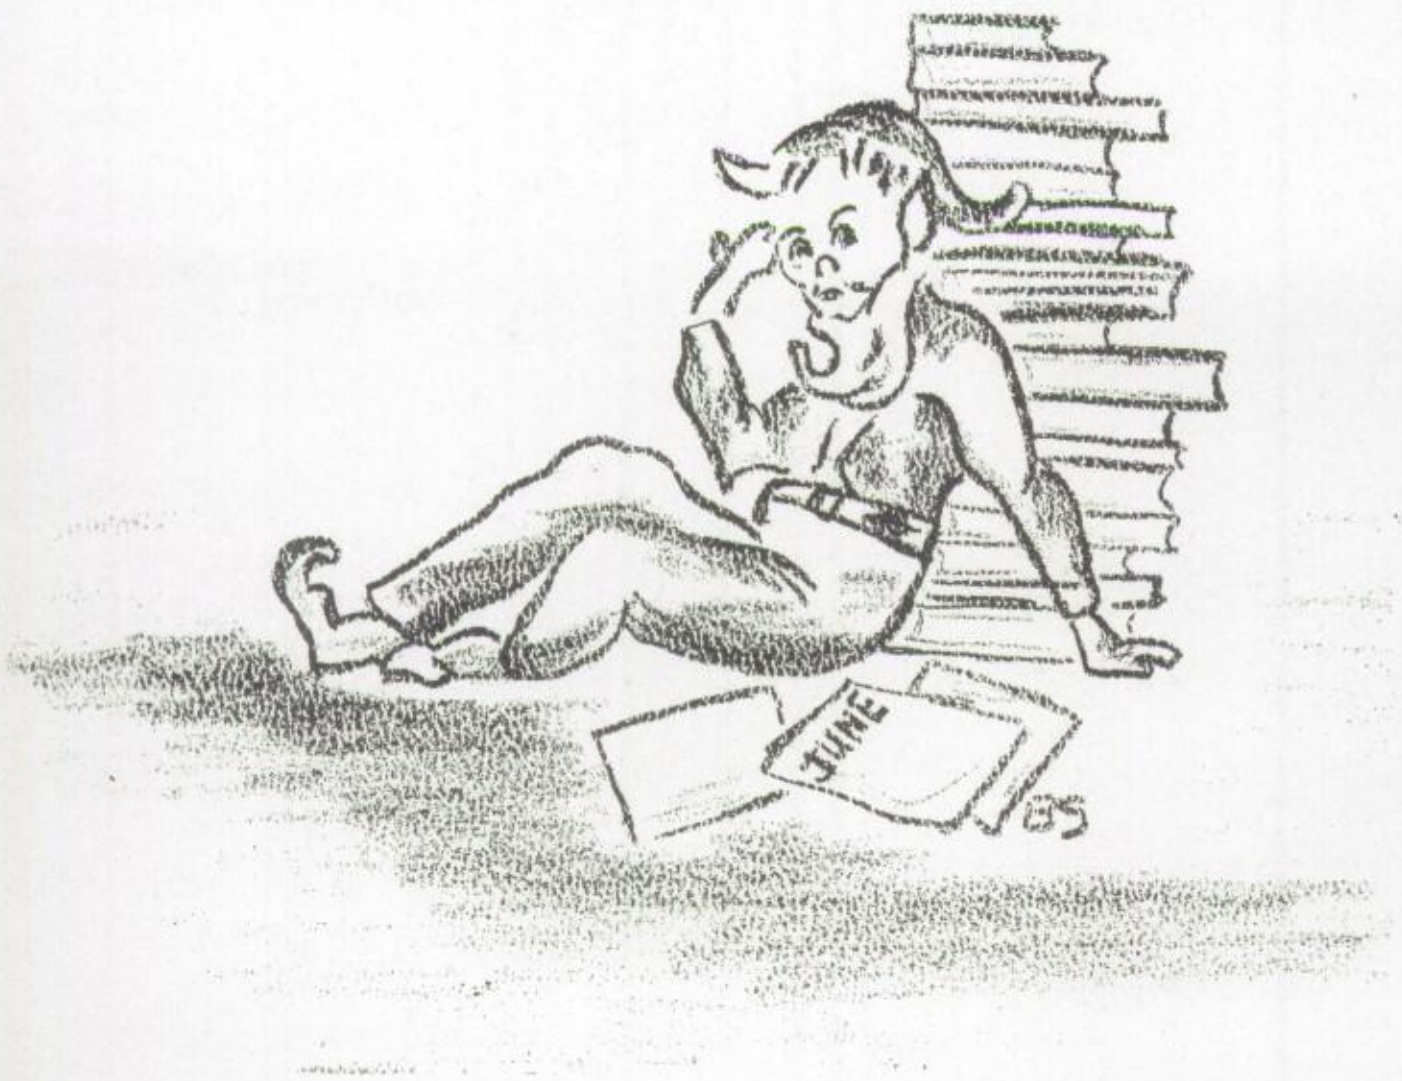
EMERALD STAFF



The staff has its problems too;
The artists had lots to do;
Getting ads was fun,
Which finally got done
By many, and not just a few.

The editors, known as "big wheels,"
Organized what it reveals;
Pictures they took
Show in this book;
The '56 school year it seals:

ATHLETICS

In the fall of the year we begin,
All our sports we strive to win;
    There's soccer and hockey;
    In football they're stocky;
All opponents we hope to skin.

In winter there's basketball,
With cheerleaders both large and small;
    Don't forget rifle,
    It is no trifle;
These teams provide action for all.

And then at last comes spring;
Into baseball and tennis we swing.
    With lots of pep,
    We'll get 'em, yep;
And after these victories we'll sing.

FIRST ROW: H. Frey, R. Blymier, W. Blymier, C. Groff, J. Craul, C. Byers, T. Zimmerman, B. Groff, J. Pennell, J. Shenk, J. Beaston, R. Schofield. SECOND ROW: MR. JOHN D. DAY III—Coach, E. ARMOLD—Coach.

SOCCER TEAM

Donegal's soccer team hardy,
Their plays are never tardy.
When they see red,
They kick and head;
A game with them is no party.

HOCKEY TEAM:

In hockey eleven play;
The girls practice day after day;
They dribble and drive,
They look alive;
When they win they are happy and gay.

FOOTBALL

When they tackle they know what to do;
The pigskin they kick
At places they pick,
Catch a pass, and run right on through.

Donegal's Varsity braves
Are supported by our school's raves;
Our Coach Depoe
Really makes them go.
Victories everyone craves.

The team was in a huddle,
The Coach was at the head,
They all got together,
And this is what they said—

"We gotta win,
We gotta win,
We gotta win tonight."
(and then the crowd cheered)

"Go Donegal go!
Fight Donegal fight!
Win Donegal win!
Go! Fight! Win.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Many and many a grad
Went out and sold an ad;
  The pains they took
  To make this book
Showed the real skill they had.

The ads they required are many,
And it won't cost you a penny
  If you will vow
  To look at them now,
And be sure that you don't miss any.

The Class of '56 says thanks
To the stores, the businesses, the banks,
  The butcher, the baker,
  And the undertaker—
To all these and the rest we say thanks.
